FIVE MEN FROM CITY AT BORDER SUPPLY STATION

Truck Drivers and Carpenters in Government Employ at Columbus Include Quintet of Albuquerqueans.

That there are no roads in the United States to compare with those over which the army supply truck trains are being taken daily was the statement this morning of Alfred Sharp, a boy who has been acting as mechanician and chauffeur with one of the trains operating from Columbus. Sharp asserted that there were stretches of road when a mile and a half to the gallon of gasoline was considered average running.

"There is one canyon we go through," he said, "which is sixty miles long, in which we never get into high gear. We fill our gasoline tanks three times in this stretch."

Sharp said there were five Albuquerqueans at Columbus, two in the truck service, who, by the way, are the only New Mexicans in it, and three working as carpenters. The former are Harry M. Scott, formerly a truck driver here, and himself. The carpenters are James Maples, John Hughes and a man named Harris. There now are about 15,000 troops in Mexico, the truck drivers declared. Many of these are recruits.

Sharp declared that the truck companies were made up of about 100 men of whom 32 or 33 are drivers, the rest being mechanics and guards.

HERNANDEZ GIVES SUPPORT TO GAME
REFUGE MEASURE

Officers of the New Mexico Game Protective association today received a letter from the secretary of Congressmen R. C. Hernandez announcing his support of the Chamberlain-Hayden game refuge bill now before congress.

Mr. Hernandez's support is regarded as important by the local game protectionists, for the reason that New Mexico's delegation is now solidly in favor of the measure.

Senators Fall and Cannon announced their support of the bill last fall. At the same time it is announced that the Albuquerque and Bernalillo county chamber of commerce has sent in a resolution strongly endorsing the measure.

There are now twenty-two chambers of commerce, game protective associations and stockmen's associations in Arizona and New Mexico that have endorsed the bill.

TRAVELING MEN TURN OUT TO HEAR HOOPER AT METHODIST CHURCH

A large number of traveling men were numbered in the large congregation which yesterday gathered E. S. Hooper, "dean of the traveling men" at the First Methodist church.

Hooper spoke in a pleasing manner and enunciated several truths in a new and compelling fashion. His address was a pleasant variation from the beaten path and made a deep impression upon those attending. He occupied the pulpit at the morning service.

BUSINESS MEN TO MEET GALLUPITES TO DISCUSS ROAD

Party of McKinley County
Boosters Here to Secure Share of Tourist Traffic West; Session at Club Tonight.

The business men of the city and the citizens generally are being urged by the Commercial club to attend the meeting to be held at the club building this evening at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of discussing road matters with the boosters who are from Gallup in general and the route of tourists via Gallup in particular. The men of the McKinley county seat have journeyed to Albuquerque for the express purpose of discussing these topics with the business men of the city and the club desires that they be shown the courtesy of a well-attended meeting.

The Gallup party arrived in the city last evening eighteen strong after a pleasant trip over the road which now is recommended to tourists. The trip was made to demonstrate the quality of the road to Albuquerque and to convince the people of this city that Gallup should have at least a part of the auto traffic that is now directed toward Socorro and Magdalena. The Gallup contingent contends that their road is just as good as others and contains many more points of interest for tourists generally than any other route west.

Every day was made in the club yesterday afternoon to anticipate the arrival of the boosters and to receive them, but owing to the fact that the probable hour of their arrival could not be ascertained, the band which had been secured was dismissed. Telegrams were sent to the party at Laguna and Los Lunas but both were unanswered, so the reception arranged at the club building went by the boards.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU DEATHLY SICK

Step using dangerous drug before it salivates you!

It's horrible!

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need evil dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a 15-cent bottle of Doctor's Liver Tonic and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and strengthen you right up better than calomel and without gripes or making you sick, I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take salamed today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't use a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless vegetable Doctor's Liver Tonic tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless. Give it to your children any time it can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.

"Gentry's Eggs" 25¢. Guaranteed. Jaffa, Maloy, Hawkins.
